Approved For Release 2001/07/31 : CIA-RDP55-00011A000100020094-0

STATINTL

STATINTL

STATINTL

With the availability of least of the Clerical Orientation program and with all of C wing and the head house room put at our disposal, we are preparing to begin this program on 22 September. It will be given twice each week, a Monday-Tuesday course and a Thursday-Friday course. The typists and stenos will be required to attend two days; the clerks will attend only one of the two days. Material that is classified will be given in R&S Building (two mornings each week) and the rest will be presented in two rooms of C wing. STATINTL with the program in order to give necessary breaks for With the program in order to give necessary breaks for With the state of the present schedule can be relaxed somewhat. A copy of the tentative daily schedules is attached. The three instructors will be working on the contents of these lectures during the next two weeks.